BISHOP FENWICK HIGH SCHOOL

Peabody, Massachusetts
Volume XIV

“THE LANCE”

The "SPIRIT OF '76" brings to mind
a spectrum of images:

a growing country struggling
for independence...

as awareness of the joy and
the hardships of a new beginning...

a recognition of a future waiting to be challenged...

a striving for unity...

But the "SPIRIT OF '76" does not end with colonial America--it still reflects our lives at Fenwick today:

a growing towards independence
through our daily experiences...

an understanding of the peace
and frustration of youth...

an anticipation of what lies ahead...

a struggle to become "one".

STUDENT LIFE

Fenwick is...

a community of sharing;

a place where people become unique individuals and learn
to live with others;

a place where teachers and
students develop a close relationship and learn from each other's successes and
mistakes;

the kind of place to experience
good and bad feelings;

at times hard and frustrating,
but worth it all.

I believe in an America that is moving, choosing, doing, dreaming--a strong America in a world of peace.

This time, like all times, is a good one
if we just know what to do with it.

I find that the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving.

SENIORS

As Freshmen when we were called the "Class of 1976", it seemed so far away. Now, as Seniors, when we reflect on our years at Fenwick we see a growth in our spirit. The memories of our Freshman year include all our "firsts" --rallies, football games, dances and C-Group. Sophomore year seemed to strengthen our friendship and spirit in the class. Our step into the Junior year caused us to have serious thoughts about the future; but at the same time reinforced our spirit through the Cotillion, election of officers and class rings. Now, as Seniors, we realize that in spite of all we've experienced at Fenwick, there is still much more waiting for us.

To Seniors Fenwick is...

it is learning to cope with one another and realizing one's capabilities and shortcomings...

a time which brings evaluation of one's life and attempts to determine one's future...

FACULTY

Our faculty, unlike the teachers of many other schools, has a special spirit which is associated with Fenwick. Sharing similar values encourages a bond of communication between the teachers and the students. There is a mutual concern that is shown through the participation in and support of student activities. In turn, the students contribute their youth and vitality to the development of the family spirit that is Fenwick.

ADMINISTRATION

A school should be more than just an institution for learning. I like to think of ours as being a community--the Fenwick Community--the union of parents, students and teachers, all of whom are working toward a common goal.

One important priority for all of us is to learn the meaning of hard work, sacrifice and commitment. These can be the ingredients which will spell success for us, provided our efforts are continual. If we strive each day to be a little better than the previous day, we will discover happiness for ourselves and will be an influence for good on all those whom our lives may touch.

Mr. Ralph LeDuc
Principal

Sr. Catherine Reidy
Vice Principal

Your four years at Fenwick have drawn to a close. At times the hours and days have lagged while other moments have raced too quickly past. You leave part of yourself here at Fenwick, while part of Fenwick goes with you. Friendships you have formed during your high school years will be cherished for a lifetime. Values, formed and strengthened, will be reassuring in doubtful times ahead. Look hopefully to your future and work with all your strength to en flesh your Camelot.

My prayer for you is borrowed from an ancient Gaelic blessing:

May the roads rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rain fall softly upon your fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you
In the hollow of His Hand.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Throughout the past year our Spirit has grown with the help of the underclassmen. The Freshmen contribute new ideas and enthusiasm to Fenwick. Their confusion gradually disappears as they become more involved in school activities. Sophomore year brings a strengthening of friendships and a realization of their class identity. Juniors take in an awareness of the future while they enjoy good times. Their relationships grow as they share their memories of the past year.

ACTIVITIES

Almost everyone at Fenwick becomes involved in the activities offered, whether it be drama, Apostolic Service, the Cotillion or any of the many opportunities provided to demonstrate our spirit. Reaching out to others is a good feeling which we find difficult to express in words. Through Operation Charlie and Apostolic Service we have gained even more than we have given. Other activities such as the Cotillion and the Drama Club are "fun times" when we relate to our friends in a different atmosphere. The Student Council gives us a chance to exercise leadership and responsibility within the Fenwick Community. We have acquired through these activities closer relationships while strengthening our individuality.

JUNIOR COTILLION

The moment may be temporary, but the memory is forever.

Love requires sharing sharing requires struggle
struggle requires faith
faith requires love.

OPERATION CHARLEY

One of the most difficult things to give away
is kindness--it is usually returned.

While enormous strides have been made in communications in recent years, there's still a lot to be said for the smile.

SPORTS

Participating in sports here at Fenwick has helped me to develop a positive winning attitude which I'm sure will carry on with me in years to come. Through the various sports I have played, I have learned to celebrate unselfishly the joy of victory and cope with the reality of defeat, striving to come back stronger in the following game.

Although much emphasis is placed on winning, I have learned that there is another goal to be reached by every participant: that the players can walk off the field content, knowing that regardless of the final outcome, everyone has given his best, all 101% of it. This is truly the mark of a championship coaching staff and team.

I have one final thing to say to all my coaches and fellow teammates, "Thanks".
